SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

The following are translations of documents concerned with the activity and organization of the PCI. These documents represent a basic contribution to an understanding of PCI Federation organizations, methods and personalities as described in the following attachments:

- a. Attachment "A" Proposal for the division in sectors and in zones of the organization of the city and of the province of Rome. (Undated, probably end of 1948 or early 1949). This document is of importance because it gives a clear picture of the present subdivisions of the PCI Rome Federation, showing strength, number of cells, and other important collateral information. Although titled as a "proposal" it is certain that it has now been approved, probably without modifications, at least as concerns the North-East quarter of Rome. The document may be considered as the critical platform erected by the Federation itself in order to view its own organization and functioning.
- b. Attachment "B" Graph showing the structure of the Sectors.
- c. Attachment "C" Questionnaire for Activists and for those in charge of Youth Work. Apparently a printed form which must be completed by those in charge of such activity. The attachment is self-explanatory.
- d. Attachment "D" Request for admission to the Garibaldi Brigade. Besides giving names of those persons who have applied for admission to the Brigade, the document constitutes definite evidence that a Garibaldi Brigade exists in Rome, at least in the Trastevere PCI Section. Noteworthy is the fact that in almost all requests for admission to the Brigade is the citation of former military activity during the liberation period.
- e. Attachment "E" Report on the activity carried out during the period September 1948 - February 1949 by the Women's cell at the State printing plant, Piazza Verdi, signed by Rosa Menconi. The report covers: 1949 membership campaign, revealing that an increase of 24 comrades had been registered in the printing plant; press distribution of Noi Donne and the weekly bulletin Il Partito.

- k. Attachment "K" Reproduced here in two sections inasmuch as it is evident that the two reports refer to one group, but were made on different dates. This attachment deals with the Group No. 1. In Section "A", 23 names are given while in Section "B", apparently a later report (dated 15 January 1949), 30 names are cited.
- l. Attachment "L" The 3rd Garibaldi Group, report of 15 January 1948 (date may be in error), listing 18 names of the group of which only 11 were effective at the time of report.
- m. Attachment "M" Battle names for members, first page is self-explanatory but the reason for the breakdown of names in groups under letters of the alphabet from a to p inclusive is not known.
- n. Attachment "N" List of press representatives of the Women's cell of the State' Printing Plant at Piazza Verdi.
- o. Attachment "O" List of female comrades who have renewed membership for the current year (apparently 1949 is meant).

ATTACHMENT "A"
(Translation)

Subject: proposal for the division in sectors and in zones of the organization of the city and of the province of Rome.

Reasons for Decentralization:

The development of the party organization which now has 968 cells and 73 sections in Rome and 115 Sections in the province, and the development of the political situation which renders our tasks always more complex and difficult have resulted recently in some deficiencies which had already been manifested in the past in the activity of direction and control on the part of Directing Committees of Federations, sections, and cells, and in the ability of sections to realize the policy of the party at its base. These deficiencies can be summarized as follows:

1. Scant capacity to differentiate the work of the party in accordance with particular local situations; as a result, an insufficient development at the base of our policy of alliances.
2. Scant capacity for political initiative in the sections.
3. Excessive targiness in making known to the base, our line of conduct.
4. Insufficient possibilities of control and of operative direction by the Federation of the sections.
5. Scant political development of the cadre of the sections, which too often end-up being simple executors and which have not succeeded in obtaining from the Federation adequate assistance.
6. Excessive concentration of directive functions in a restricted number of comrades of the Federation.

It seems evident that the prospective developments of the political situation constantly render more necessary: a rapid orientation of the party at the base and a rapid activation of comrades regarding the various problems which will present themselves; a greater initiative on the part of sections; a more able and wider policy of alliances; the possibility of having more directing centers which would be capable of functioning, eventually, in an autonomous manner. Therefore a decentralization of the direction operation of the Federation over the sections is necessary with the creation of sectors in the city and in the provincial zone, which, having the capacity of elaborating policy in addition to that of execution and of control, should render the policy of the Federation more differentiated and congruent with local problems and structure; should exercise a greater amount of control and political assistance to the sections and to their leaders, and in this manner, assure a better development of cadre at the base; should be able to assure greater rapidity of movement to the party; and, finally, should guarantee to the party a plurality of directing centers with autonomous functioning if circumstance requires it.

1st Sector

Would include, broadly speaking, the center of the city, more precisely the sections of Prati, Colonna, Ludovisi, Lazio, Esquilino, Lioni, Campitelli, Rione Parione, Borgo, and Universitaria. This sector is fairly homogeneous, handling problems of directing the business and clerical workers cells, and on the street level, those of middle class artisans and businessmen and of the old quarters of Rome (Borgo, Rione, Lioni, Campo Marzio, etc). Following is a breakdown with fundamental data:

Classification: SECRET/CONTROL (U. S. officials only)

The area is one of factory workers' cells and of mixed quarters. It is homogeneous enough even if some quarters, such as Latino Metronio and San Saba, have now become typical middle class quarters. Following is the breakdown:

Sections	10
Workers Cells (Factory).....	60
Agency clerical cells	4
Male Street cells	54

Subject: Report on the activity carried out during the period September 1948 - February 1949 by the Women's Cell at the State printing plant on Piazza Verdi.

The first work faced by the cell committee following the resignation of the political secretary Ross MARCUCCI, was participation of the women of the printing plant in the grand celebration of Unita on 26 September.

On that occasion the comrades of the cell mobilized for the participation in considerable number with a placard representing the symbol of the party.

The enthusiasm which characterized the manifestation influenced the sympathizers who were called to participate in the parade with the positive results that during the same day and in the immediate successive days after 12 new comrades joined the Party. In the framework of the struggle for the defense of peace against the provokers of war, the cell took the initiative to gather a symbolic amount of lire and signatures in notebooks in which were indicated the motives of the struggle.

This action was not limited to inside the agency, but many comrades for many evenings toured the streets in the quarter gathering a considerable sum of lire and signatures, clarifying to all those who were asked to sign, the political significance of our action.

For the winter campaign plan the cell, after having carried out internal clarification work, participated in all the civic manifestations and on occasion of the Sefana for poor children, the cell, together with the male cell, organized a luncheon for 111 children of the Gordiani Borgata to whom a package was given containing chocolate drops made by the youth commission of the plant.

Membership Campaign

The membership campaign for 1949, based upon collectors, has permitted the activation of a large number of comrades, in fact there are today 19 collectors.

This number of comrades constitutes a solid network through which our cell succeeded to articulate itself, above all internally, inasmuch as it not only permitted the directive committee to control the work, but above all, it also permitted the various units to receive directives of the Party immediately, such as those to all workers of the plant from the syndicate and from the Internal Commission.

The outcome of the membership campaign achieved by the action of collectors indicates clearly better results and the necessity of cultivating, as carefully as possible, the development of those comrades in a manner to make of them real political leaders.

As of 31 December we had 108 members in our cell, following the membership campaign our number swelled to 131 comrades. This notable result which we registered in mid-February indicates how the influence of our Party among the women workers of the printing plant are continuously on the increase and that we have ample possibilities of further development of our organization if we know how to conduct our recruitment campaign.

Classification: SECRET/CONTROL (U. S. officials only)

ATTACHMENT "E"
(cont.)Press Distribution

Thus far we distributed only two publications of the party. Noi Donne and the weekly bulletin Il Partito. Copies of Noi Donne within the recent period have been decreased from 200 to 160 every week. It is therefore clear that there is need for better work of distribution not only to reach the previous number, but to surpass it in consideration of greater possibilities of work. Il Partito is purchased by 8 members of the cell committee.

Mass Work

As concerns mass work the cell has given its contribution in two forms:

- a) The constitution of a youth commission with the participation of other political and independent currents.
- b) Activity carried out on occasion of elections of the internal commission of which Maria PITUCCHI is a member, elected together with other comrades in a victory which we all acknowledge.

Conclusions

Without a doubt this report stresses points indicating the positive results of our work, but this does not mean that all the work goes well. In fact we must complain of large absenteeism in cell meetings a matter which is justified by the fact that it is difficult to induce the comrades to participate in view of the fatigue resulting from long hours in the plant. This must overcome, but without a doubt we will succeed in overcoming this great deficiency, above all in bettering the political content of the meetings, and thus making a greater contribution to the struggle for the defense of the workers interests and the defence of the peace.
